The Sole Experience, is a mock-up exhibit I created and campaigned for the Frist Museum of Art. I first generated the idea of what the exhibit was going to be about, created content for it, then created a campaign which advertised the exhibit. I also assorted my work for a presentation

I developed a custom package for a product, and created a brochure to go with it. I first invented an idea for the product, bought a piece that went with it, and designed the package around it.
